Mr. Charles Hampton of Cincinnati, accompanied by his friend, Mr. John Gilliam, also of Cincinnati, spent Thanksgiving with their parents and called on friends.

DRAMATISM.

My footstep goes, how I hate To worship at your shrine; My life no longer seems a waste Since you are to be mine.

And yet when hearts should most be gay, There comes some cruel thought, Which into night transforms the day And makes our hopes all naught.

A subtle horror lingers still, Though pleasure comes and goes; It haunts me, wander where I will; Fate has declared it so.

I go to hear the truth from you, Decline it, good or bad, I am to bear your burden, true, Or, am I just an ad?

—Washington Star.

Matter for publication in The Ledger MUST be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning.

Miss Maggie Duke Watson entertained with a musicale last evening.

SIXTEENTH KENTUCKY.

Thirtieth Anniversary of the Battle of Franklin, Tenn.

Yesterday at Augusta the Sixteenth Kentucky held its first annual reunion, being the thirtieth anniversary of the battle of Franklin, Tenn., one of the bloodiest and most decisive of the war, in which the gallant regiment bore such conspicuous part. Early in the action Colonel White was wounded, after which the command devolved upon Captain Jacob Miller of this city.

We have not space to recount the heroic deeds of members of the regiment, but they were many and brilliant. Augusta was handsomely decorated, and everywhere the latching of her people was upon the outside.

Russell Hall, under the management of Comrade B. W. Perham, was tastefully festooned with the National colors, and every arrangement was perfect for the convenience and comfort of the visitors.

President C. L. Overly of this city was in the chair, and the program was interspersed by good music.

The attendance was much larger than on any former occasion.

After prayer by the Rev. Thomas J. Wood, Dr. A. A. Bannon, on behalf of the citizens, extended the visitors a hearty welcome in a beautiful and appropriate address, responded to by President Overly.

Upon reassembling in the afternoon the following officers were chosen for the coming year.

President—H. C. Metcalfe of Brookville.

Vice President—W. H. Yelton of Butler.

Secretary—H. C. Weaver of Brookville.

Treasurer—Thomas J. Wood of Tilton.

Chaplain—Jacob Miller of Mayville.

Historian—C. Lewis Overly of Mayville.

Augusta—Innkeeper, hospitable Augusta, with her handsome daughters and chivalric sons, was chosen almost by acclamation as the next place of meeting.

Then there was a street parade, and again the veterans assembled at Russell Hall, where Rev. Thomas J. Wood of Tilton and Captain Rankin of Ohio made acceptable speeches.

Last night the visitors who remained were entertained with a banquet by Jo. Doniphan Camp, Sons of Veterans.

PICKET FIRING.

Dr. W. H. Yelton of Butler never fails to end his old comrades.

W. O. Holmes, ex-Mayville, who is Augusta's most popular and successful grocer, busy as he was, took time to give all his old friends a hearty greeting.

The Augusta Sons of Veterans are a fine looking body—worthy successors of their patriotic sires.

The recitation, "A Veteran's Daughter," by little Miss Fields, was well rendered and well received.

Captain H. C. Weaver and his handsome daughters of Brookville were prime favorites with the visitors.

Colonel Thompson of The Chronicle was an interested spectator, and proud of the manner in which the visitors were entertained.

Dr. A. A. Bannon served in an Illinois regiment; but he has lived in Augusta so long that he has "limbed" the "spirit" of true Kentucky hospitality.

One of the most modern persons present was Captain Jacob Miller of this city, who commanded the Sixteenth at the battle of Franklin after Colonel White was wounded.

Miss Harris of Covington, daughter of the late Major Harris of the Sixteenth, was one of those present who manifested great interest in the veterans who had served with her gallant father.

THE LEXINGTON respectfully suggests that hereafter those who want to talk and laugh be accorded the use of a separate room. No one can speak when half his audience is moving around engaged in conversation.

Hot Coffee, 5 cents a mug.

THEO. C. POWER

J. H. Rains & Sons made a shipment of tobacco to Washington, D. C., yesterday.

Evans tested and glasses fitted by Dr. P. G. Smoot. Satisfaction guaranteed.

J. T. Kackley & Co.'s opening of fancy goods Monday, December 3d. Music at night by Bailey's Orchestra.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Comer that died Thursday of whooping-cough was buried yesterday.

Bargains in Millinery.

Trimmed Hats at half price. Bargains unsurpassed. We are selling our Millinery at astonishingly low prices. Mrs. L. V. Davis, Zweigart's Block.

J. T. Kackley & Co.'s opening of fancy goods Monday, December 3d. Music at night by Bailey's Orchestra.

A negro man named "Sugar" Bill, aged 36 years, was found dead Wednesday morning at the Paris Gas Works.

Freddie, brother-in-law of Everett Brightman, the postman, had the thumb of his right hand torn loose by the discharge of a gun Thursday evening. It is not a dangerous wound, but a very painful one. He is getting along all right this morning.

Hot Chocolate, 5 cents a mug.

THEO. C. POWER

Those in charge of the Thanksgiving dinner for the poor of our city herewith tender sincere thanks to the giver of every good and perfect gift for that out of the abundance with which He has blessed our people, they responded to this call for a practical showing how thankful they were. Most generous were the good people of Mayville by their hearty approval. The burden of the committee was made light and the labor attached thereto, in detail, was much lessened. Having cast their bread upon the water, may it soon return with every blessing attached. By order of the committee.

J. M. Scott, President.

Walter Cady, Secretary.

BOOMING!

SOME SEQUELS TO THE LATE REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Returning Prosperity—Factories Starting Up—Work for American Workmen.

(Before the election THE LEADER argued that Republican success meant a restoration of confidence, the opening of American factories and workshops, the return of business to its wonted channels, profitable and steady employment for American workmen, and an era of renewed prosperity all along the line. That the hopes held out by THE LEADER were not false ones is being fully demonstrated. Below are a few evidences of the business revival that trends on the heels of the great Republican victory.—EDITOR.)

Akron, O.—The great publishing corporation of this city, the Werner Company, has voluntarily per cent the wages of its 1,300 employees 10 per cent, meeting its promise made a year ago, when their wages were cut.

Commercial Gazette: The feeling that has prevailed for several weeks past that it was somewhat unsafe to attempt to offer predictions as to the immediate future of the industrial conditions seems to have passed away entirely, and almost without exception, the various trade publications and the press in general now takes the brightest view of the situation, and feel no hesitancy in forecasting an early revival of business and a general resumption of all classes of work.

Franklin, Ind.—The situation here is decidedly cheering, as the industrial prosperity is increasing rapidly. All our factories, except one window glass plant, are operating with an increased number of employees over last week, and indications are extremely favorable that all will soon be running at full capacity. The "Burnt District," where the conflagrations last spring wiped out several business blocks, has all been built up with the brick business blocks, making over $300,000 worth of improvements in the building line alone during the past six months. Labor is nearly all at work at remunerative wages, and it seems that the full tide of prosperity has again struck this city.

The following information, gathered during the past week by THE Manufacturers' Record, tends to show that there is a very decided increase in the investments being made in new manufacturing enterprises, and lends encouragement for the future in that each project will give employment to a large number of men, and if the ratio continues the time is not far distant when there will be an abundance of work for all who are now searching for employment. With so many new enterprises constantly coming into existence, and a general resumption in all those that have been for some time suspended, prosperous times are bound to soon return. The Manufacturers' Record's report is as follows: "The week shows the organization of a number of very important mining and manufacturing companies, including a $500,000 coal mining company in West Virginia, a $1,000,000 coal and iron mining company in North Carolina, and a $600,000 coal mining company in Texas; a $300,000 sugar refinery in Louisiana, $50,000 ice plant, $25,000 oil well company and a $1,000,000 general construction company in West Virginia; $10,000 spoke and lumber plant, electric light plant, cotton mill and flour mill in Tennessee; $20,000 cement plant, $20,000 phosphate works, water-works and ice factory in Florida; $50,000 steamboat company, $100,000 car-bearer works, $20,000 implement company, $50,000 machine shops projected in Maryland; $25,000 manufacturing company and $25,000 box company in Texas; $150,000 marine railway plant, $100,000 land company, $30,000 machine shops and a $50,000 fertilizer company in Louisiana; $20,000 water-works, spoke plant, ice plant and flour mill in Kentucky; $125,000 phosphate works, marine railway, lumber plant and electric light plant in Georgia; $25,000 water-works and $53,000 mining plant in Alabama. The contract was let during the week for the building of a steamer at Newport News to cost about $300,000—the shipyard at that point now having on hand about $2,000,000 worth of work. Railway matters are attracting increased attention, and a number of short lines have been projected to connect with important systems, while contracts have been let for the building of an aggregate of 300 or 400 miles in different parts of the South.
